The mind and imagination . . . Unlike just about every American writer since Henry James, Mailer has managed to grow and become Mailer is fierce, courageous, and reckless and nearly everything he writes has sections of headlong brilliance. The New York Review of Books The largest reckless talent. The New Yorker Mailer is indispensable, an American treasure. The Washington Post A devastatingly alive and original creative mind. Life believable work of fiction . . . of what may have been going through the mind of Jesus during his epic ministry. San Francisco Chronicle Praise for Norman Mailer Challenges readers on the religious right and the atheist left with equally rich interpretive tasks. The Dallas Morning News An informed and Mailer s] gospel is written in a direct, rather relaxed English that yet has an eerie, neo-Biblical dignity. John Updike, The New Yorker A book of considerable piercing simplicity, it may be Mailer s most accessible, direct, and heartfelt work. Praise for The Gospel According to the Son Quietly penetrating . . . [Norman According to the Son, Mailer reimagines, as no other modern author has, the key character of Western history. Here is Jesus Christ s story in his own words: the

Between the Assassinations

A Narrative of the treatment experienced by a Gentleman, during a state of mental derangement; designed to explain the causes and the nature of Insanity, etc.

In his compelling new work of fiction, Aravind Adiga has imagined the small Indian city of Kittur, an everytown nestling on the coast south of Goa and north of Calicut. Through the myriad and distinctive voices of its inhabitants, an entire Indian world comes vividly and unforgettably to life. From a middle-aged Communist to an Islamic terrorist; from the young children of a Tamil building-site worker to a privileged and alienated schoolboy; from an idealistic journalist to a Brahmin housemaid, Adiga has produced a microcosm of Indian life in the 80s, the years between the assassinations of Indira Gandhi and her son Rajiv. Muslim, Christian and Hindu, high-caste and low-caste, rich and poor: all of Indian life - the 'sorrowful parade of humanity' - is here. Journeying through Kittur's streets and schoolyards, bedrooms and businesses, its inner workings and outer limits, Adiga conjures a remarkable fictional landscape. Sizzling with acid observations, and textured with wicked humour and gentle humanity, Between the Assassinations is a triumph of voice and imagination.

The Violet Eden Chapters

Jurgen Herbst's account of growing up in Nazi Germany from 1928 to 1948 is a boy's experience of anti-Semitism and militarism from the inside. Herbst was a middle-class boy in a Lutheran family that saw value in Prussian military ideals and a mythic German past. His memoir is a compelling, understated tale of moral awakening.

Dark Horizons

Requiem for a German Past

Invited to London by the Duke and Duchess of Lancaster, Erik is resigned to working on the Duke's amateur opera, but he is not prepared to face two figures from his past, Dr. Richmond and Celeste Renoit. Sculptress and murderer, Celeste Renoit, like Erik, was once interned in Dr. Richmond's asylum in Austria. Now with the patronage of London society, she prepares for an exhibition of her work: a series of busts based on Erik's unmasked face. No less disturbing is the rumor that Dr. Richmond is working on a manuscript of his most interesting cases, including that of the Phantom of the Opera. But darker deeds may be in store for Erik and his family. For bodies have been found floating in the river, drained of blood, their faces mutilated.
